

Serial No. 10/087,917

In the Claims

Please add the following claims:

36. A gas centrifuge means operating to separate carbon dioxide from one of the following:

- i) a gas or gases lighter than carbon dioxide
- ii) a hydrogen containing gas.

37. The combination of claim 5 wherein the heavier gas stream consists of carbon dioxide and the lighter gas stream consists of a hydrogen content gas.

38. The combination of claim 6 wherein the heavier gas stream consists of carbon dioxide and the lighter gas stream consists of a hydrogen content gas.

39. The combination of claim 7 wherein the heavier gas stream consists of carbon dioxide and the lighter gas stream consists of a hydrogen content gas.

Dec. 1966

RECEIVED
JUN 21 1967
TC 1700 MAIL ROOM